

Don't Leave Any Holes in Your Education

McCombs Leadership Program

Set yourself apart and gain valuable leadership skills with the award-winning McCombs Leadership Program. The Leadership Program provides you with unique programs and activities to complement your academic requirements while enhancing your leadership development, awareness and actions on an individual, local and global level.

Individual

During your first year in the LP, you begin to discover your strengths and define your values.

- Explore your leadership strengths at a retreat.
- Interact with a panel of leaders and learn how to communicate more effectively.

Institutional

Year three encourages you to demonstrate your commitment to issues relevant to the multiple communities in which you belong.

- Connect with the Austin community and actively participate in becoming a better citizen.
- Complete a community service project with your peers.

Organizational

Your second year is spent reflecting on your roles within a group and learning how to more effectively collaborate with others in achieving common goals.

- Climb Mount Everest as a team through the Harvard Business School Everest Simulation.
- Learn to manage organizational conflict.

Global

Building off your leadership skills and experiences, your final year challenges you to become an ethical global citizen by affecting positive change.

- Participate in a global trip.
- Learn how to become a more engaged global citizen.
